

A revolutionary idea recognised by Bettane and Desseauve.

The Winemaker's Collection is a concept unique in the world! Every year, a well-known enologist creates his or her "dream wine" from the same terroir, Château d'Arsac in Margaux. The collection started with a bang 10 years ago (93/100 Parker points for the first opus, by Michel Rolland) and has now received rave reviews from wine critic Thierry Desseauve.

Ten years into this great adventure, we are proud to present a gift box containing bottles by the first six winemakers to have created vintages on Philippe Raoux' estate: Michel Rolland, Denis Dubourdieu, Andrea Franchetti, Stéphane Deroncourt, Eric Boissenot, and Zelma Long. The greatest star winemakers not only in France but also worldwide!

Thierry Desseauve was delighted with this mixed case concept: "It is one of the most original ideas we have seen in Bordeaux for years! The world's best enologists have come to Philippe Raoux' estate at Château d'Arsac - one of the finest Haut Médoc and Margaux vineyards. For an entire year, each of these star winemakers did exactly what they wanted: choice of grape varieties, winemaking methods, and yields. It shows wine lovers the impact of a winemaker on an estate's style. Investors can choose their future consultant on results!".
